

Borderers: Becoming American on the Southern Frontier

Carla Barringer Rabinowitz

Friday, January 11—7:00 p.m.

Phinehas S. Newton Library

19 On the Common, Royalston

Borderers* follows the real-life journeys of two families of southern backwoodsmen from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast over the course of four generations. The book is a story of race, class, religion, and community at the dawn of America.

Carla will read from her book, discuss her extensive research, and her journey towards discovering her family history.

Refreshments provided by the Friends of the Phinehas S. Newton Library.
